Special Notices.

Proclamation—MAYOR'S OFFICE, New York, Nov. 21, 1855.—Acknowledging our dependence on Almighty God, and duly sensible that to His mercy we are indebted for continued peace, prosperity and general public health, while other communities less favored have been sorely afflicted with pestilence and diseases, we are now called upon to return thanks and give praise to the author of our blessings, the protector of our lives and the dispenser of all the blessings we enjoy.

With these sentiments, and in pursuance of custom, and of the Proclamation of His Excellency Myron H. Clark, Governor of the State of New-York, that THURSDAY, the 29th day of November next be set aside as a day of prayer, thanksgiving and prayer, I call upon the people of this City to observe that day as such, with all due respect and solemnity.

Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid, FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.

Remember the News-Boys.—To the Editor of The New-York Tribune:—The pious remembrance of the "good time" they had on last Thanksgiving Day is still fresh in the minds of the NEWS-BOYS; and for weeks past they have often inspired us with their stories of fun and frolic. We would be very thankful if you would refer to our friends, and ask them to remember the News-Boys.—New-York, Nov. 22, 1855.

C. G. TRACY, Superintendent.
